

In addition to the pre-formatted press releases provided by NHTSA and listed here on our website, we have added quotes from the leadership of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police. Our Officers and Board of Governors represent all geographic regions of New York State. We are pleased to provide relevant and meaningful citations from these law enforcement leaders to help enhance your local press releases, customizing them along with quotations from yourself and other local leaders.

Library of Quotes:

REGION	THEME	SOURCE	QUOTE
SOUTHERN TIER	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	While we are focusing our enforcement efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."
SOUTHERN TIER	Why?	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Southern Tier police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
SOUTHERN TIER	Alternative transportation	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli of the Corning Police Department, who also serves on the Board of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, urges everyone to be careful during this holiday season. "If you're impaired, take a taxi, call a sober friend or family member, or use public transportation."
SOUTHERN TIER	Multifaceted approach	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Enforcement is just one part of what we are doing. Law enforcement agencies are regularly involved in public information and education campaigns. In Corning we work with the news media, youth groups, non-profit organizations and schools.
SOUTHERN	Saving lives	Chief Salvatore	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines

TIER		Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	all too often. Police officers throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."
SOUTHERN TIER	National message	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Remember the national message, "driver sober or get pulled over!"
SOUTHERN TIER	Consequences	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney's fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
SOUTHERN TIER	Saturation and detection	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Local police are teaming up for saturation patrols and DWI checkpoints to identify impaired drivers. Remember, we'll see you before you see us!
SOUTHERN TIER	Partnerships	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli said, "In the Southern Tier, we work very closely with our traffic safety boards and the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee."
SOUTHERN TIER	Super Bowl enforcement	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired period	Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Super Bowl weekend.

SOUTHERN TIER	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
SOUTHERN TIER	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
SOUTHERN TIER	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.

SOUTHERN TIER	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
SOUTHERN TIER	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
SOUTHERN TIER	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Salvatore Trentanelli Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Corning.	Police throughout the Southern Tier will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Salvatore Trentanelli noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
CENTRAL	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	While we are focusing our enforcement efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."
CENTRAL	Why?	Chief Gary Giannotta	In the United States there are eleven

		Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
CENTRAL	Alternative transportation	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Chief Gary Giannotta of the Auburn Police Department, who also serves on the Board of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, urges everyone to be careful during this holiday season. "If you're impaired, take a taxi, call a sober friend or family member, or use public transportation."
CENTRAL	Multifaceted approach	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Enforcement is just one part of what we are doing. Law enforcement agencies are regularly involved in public information and education campaigns.
	Warning	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That's your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.
CENTRAL	Saving lives	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Central New York will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Giannotta noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."
CENTRAL	National message	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the	Remember the national message, "driver sober or get pulled over!"

		City of Auburn.
CENTRAL	Consequences	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney's fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
CENTRAL	Saturation and detection	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Local police are teaming up for saturation patrols and DWI checkpoints to identify impaired drivers. Remember, we'll see you before you see us!
CENTRAL	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
CENTRAL	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
CENTRAL	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to

		City of Auburn.	help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.
CENTRAL	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
CENTRAL	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
CENTRAL	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Gary Giannotta Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the City of Auburn.	Police in Central New York will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Gary Giannotta noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the state will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	While we are focusing our enforcement efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Warning	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That’s your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Alternative transportation	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Chief Margaret E. Ryan of the Dryden Police Department, who also serves on the Board of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, urges everyone to be careful during this holiday season. “If you’re impaired, take a taxi, call a sober friend or family member, or use public transportation.”
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Multifaceted approach	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Tompkins County police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Saving lives	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Tompkins County will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, “This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it’s a matter of saving lives.”
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	National message	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Remember the national message, “driver sober or get pulled over!”
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER;	Super Bowl enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, “We will

TOMPKINS COUNTY		New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Super Bowl weekend.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick’s Day period.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN TIER; TOMPKINS COUNTY	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Margaret E. Ryan Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Dryden.	Police throughout the region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Margaret E. Ryan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout the Southern Tier and Central New York will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Baldwinsville.	While we are focusing our enforcement efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."
ONONDAGA	Why?	Chief Michael	In the United States there are eleven

COUNTY		Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Onondaga County police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
CENTRAL NEW YORK	Why?	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Central New York police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Warning	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That’s your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Saving lives	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Onondaga County and Central New York will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, “This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it’s a matter of saving lives.”
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	National message	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of	Remember the national message, “driver sober or get pulled over!”

		Baldwinsville.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Consequences	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney's fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Saturation and detection	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Local police are teaming up for saturation patrols and DWI checkpoints to identify impaired drivers. Remember, we'll see you before you see us!
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Police throughout the Onondaga County and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Police throughout the Onondaga County and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
CENTRAL NEW YORK;	Fourth of July	Chief Michael	Police throughout the Onondaga County

YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	enforcement period	Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Police throughout the Onondaga County and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Police throughout the Onondaga County and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
CENTRAL NEW YORK; ONONDAGA COUNTY	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Michael Lefancheck Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Village of Baldwinsville.	Police throughout the Onondaga County and Central New York region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Michael Lefancheck noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout region will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during

			the holiday season.
ERIE	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Erie County police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
ERIE	Public education; Enforcement partnerships	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	We reinforce the importance of traffic safety through our DARE program, with our School Resource Officers, and through many community outreach programs. We participate in local DWI patrols during specified times throughout the year, and partner with other law enforcement agencies to enforce traffic violations.
ERIE	General	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Simply put, driving under the influence kills. Our police agencies will do everything possible to keep our roadways safe.
ERIE	Multifaceted approach	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Enforcement is just one part of what we are doing. Law enforcement agencies are regularly involved in public information and education campaigns. In Erie County, we routinely present information to our Citizen Police Academies, local radio talk shows, school lecture programs and through social networking.
ERIE	Saving lives	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Erie County will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Gehen noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."

ERIE	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Police throughout the Erie County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Edward Gehen noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Erie County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
ERIE	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Police throughout the Erie County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Edward Gehen noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Erie County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
ERIE	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Police throughout the Erie County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Edward Gehen noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Erie County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.
ERIE	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Edward F. Gehen Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of West Seneca.	Police throughout the Erie County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Edward Gehen noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Erie County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
NASSAU	Targeted and	Chief Daniel Duggan	While we are focusing our enforcement

	sustaining enforcement	Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."
NASSAU	Why?	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Nassau County police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
NASSAU	Alternative transportation	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Chief Duggan of the Old Westbury Police Department, who also serves on the Board of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, urges everyone to be careful during this holiday season. "If you're impaired, take a taxi, call a sober friend or family member, or use public transportation."
NASSAU	Multifaceted approach	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
NASSAU	Super Bowl enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Super Bowl period.

NASSAU	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
NASSAU	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
NASSAU	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.
NASSAU	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police;	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout

		Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
NASSAU	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
NASSAU	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Police throughout the Nassau County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Duggan noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Nassau County will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
NASSAU	Warning?	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That's your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.
NASSAU	Saving lives	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Nassau County will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Duggan noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."

		Town of Old Westbury.
NASSAU	National message	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Remember the national message, “driver sober or get pulled over!
NASSAU	Consequences	Chief Daniel Duggan Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Old Westbury.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney’s fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
NASSAU	Warning	Chief William Kilfoil Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Port Washington Police District.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That’s your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.
NASSAU	Enforcement	Chief William Kilfoil Past President of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Port Washington Police District.	Local police are teaming up for saturation patrols and DWI checkpoints to identify impaired drivers. Remember, we’ll see you before you see us!
WESTCHESTER	Warning	Chief Robert D’Angelo Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of North Castle.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That’s your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.

WESTCHESTER	National Message	Chief Robert D'Angelo Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of North Castle.	Remember the national message, "driver sober or get pulled over!"
WESTCHESTER	Consequences	Chief Robert D'Angelo Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of North Castle.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney's fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Targeted and sustaining enforcement	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	While we are focusing our enforcement efforts as part of a concerted national effort during this Crackdown, we are also patrolling throughout the year. Remember the national message, "We'll see you before you see us."
MONROE COUNTY	Why?	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Monroe County police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
WESTERN NY	Why?	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	In the United States there are eleven crashes every minute, one traffic injury every 13 seconds, and one traffic fatality every 14 minutes. Western New York police agencies will be doing their part to detect and arrest impaired drivers. Police will be using saturation patrols and sobriety checkpoints to help prevent crashes, reduce injuries, and save lives.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Super Bowl enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law

		of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Super Bowl period.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	St. Patrick's Day enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the St. Patrick's Day period.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Memorial Day enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Memorial Day holiday season.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Fourth of July enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Fourth of July holiday season.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Labor Day National Crackdown	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, "We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe." Law

		of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the Labor Day season.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Halloween enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during Halloween.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Holiday Season enforcement period	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Police throughout the Monroe County region will be out in force looking for impaired drivers. Chief Pickering noted, “We will do everything we can to ensure our roadways are safe.” Law enforcement agencies throughout Monroe County area will be using roving patrols and checkpoints to help ensure that the roadways are safe during the holiday season.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Multifaceted approach	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Enforcement is just one part of what we are doing. Law enforcement agencies are regularly involved in public information and education campaigns.
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Warning?	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Motorists sometimes ask police if they can get a warning – well, here it is. If we catch you driving while impaired, we will arrest you. That’s your warning. If you plan on drinking, make sure that you have also planned for a way to get home.

MONROE COUNTY	Saving lives	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Monroe County will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Pickering noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."
WESTERN NY	Saving lives	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Alcohol involved crashes make headlines all too often. Police officers throughout Western New York will be out in force during the upcoming Crackdown period. Chief Pickering noted, "This is not just about arresting drunk and drugged drivers, it's a matter of saving lives."
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	National Message	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Remember the national message, "driver sober or get pulled over!"
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Consequences	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Drunk drivers often face jail time, the loss of their driving privilege, higher insurance rates, attorney's fees, court costs and lost wages. Is it worth it?
MONROE COUNTY; WESTERN NY	Partners in enforcement	Chief Gerald Pickering Board of Governors Representative for the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police; Chief of Police for the Town of Webster.	Local police are teaming up for saturation patrols and DWI checkpoints to identify impaired drivers. Remember, we'll see you before you see us!

We appreciate your sharing any publicity that you send relating to your enforcement and public education efforts. Send them to APB@nychiefs.org.